From the President

2021 has been quite a year, but we made it through! The year has been another of fits and starts in politics, policing and air travel. While it appears we are preparing for 2022 without COVID-19 in our rear-view mirror, we are working out ways to manage the uncertainties that paralyzed our country, our city, our parks and our airports for close to two years. Our airports nearly getting back to pre-COVID passenger numbers indicates both visitors and Angelenos are becoming comfortable leaving their homes again. We will also continue to represent the rights of all LAAPOA members to make personal health decisions for themselves and their families.

We have also seen a boomerang in public attitudes toward police – or, to be more specific, we are witnessing a change in public policy that seems more balanced to the challenges that law enforcement faces. I am hoping you begin to feel support from the public that we deserve, and that seemed to become more abundant as 2021 progressed.

We are hoping that the resurgence will help with LAXPD recruitment, which has recently been reauthorized after months of delays. We are also pleased that our efforts to arm Park Police have advanced. We have crossed the first hurdle and hope to finalize the policy in the new year.

2022 will bring us back to the bargaining table. LAAPOA leadership is up to the challenge and ready for whatever comes our way. We are stronger for what we have experienced this year. We are ready to make our case to the airport, City, and Rec and Parks as LAWA regains its stride, LAX continues its expansion and the pendulum swings for law enforcement to provide much-needed public safety. I wish you and your family good health, peace of mind and happiness for 2022.

Marshall E. McClain, President

Assistance

Peace Officers' Assistance

Active and retired members can take part in the fun. The Los Angeles Airport Police Athletics & Activities League (LAAPAAL) is a charitable-giving organization that assists its members and other members of the community.

Short- and Long-Term Life, AD&D Needs

Available through our membership in the Peace Officers Research Association of California (PORAC), these plans are administered by Myers-Stevens & Toohy & Co. Inc., which has countless years of serving its clients.

Long-Term-Care Plan

All active members receive the optional initial benefit amount of $1,000 per month in coverage from the City Employees Club of Los Angeles.

Legislation

For over 35 years, LAAPOA has had a record of legislative involvement. It definitely helps that a current LAAPOA Board member is a member of the Board of Directors for PORAC, one of the largest statewide organizations at over 75,000 members. PORAC is a strong component of our legislative success.

Political Action

With voluntary contributions to the LAAPOA PAC coupled with great political advice from some of the best in the business, LAAPOA's PAC has been used wisely and is a direct part of the success or demise of many campaigns.

Bargaining Unit

LAAPOA is the exclusive bargaining unit for the officers of the Los Angeles Airport Police, Los Angeles Municipal Police (MPO) and Los Angeles Park Rangers (LPR). LAAPOA is the only union recognized by the City of Los Angeles to negotiate wages, hours and working conditions, and only LAAPOA members have the right to ratify a potential contract.

Standing Committees

- Activities/Fundraising
- Discipline/Grievance
- Legislative/PAC
