From the President

As 2022 comes to a close, the Los Angeles Airport Peace Officers Association reflects with gratitude on this year's accomplishments and the honor of representing our members after another election. Yet again, it has been a year of overcoming trials, challenges and changes that will bring about new developments for the airport police community, the city's parks and citywide policing as a whole in the coming years.

Staffing is a priority with all of our agencies, and we will continue to work with management on filling existing vacancies and ensuring our members are accorded the resources and equipment needed to fulfill their duties to the utmost level while staying safe on the job. The political arena also remains volatile, especially as we wrap up this midterm election year, and our involvement is more critically important than ever as law enforcement continues to be a target of scrutiny and flawed public policy. Through our affiliations with our brothers and sisters in PORAC and other police associations, we were pleased to participate in joint efforts to oppose bills and political candidates that would diminish public safety and advocate for those that would protect our communities and uphold our mission. We achieved many successes this year, and we hope to build on them going forward. LAAPOA will keep pushing for local, state and federal legislation that supports and advances our profession and the safety of our airports, parks and cities.

We look forward to further enhancing benefits and quality of life for our members and their families in 2023, and we anticipate great improvements in advance of the many major events coming to the Los Angeles area in the years ahead. As always, may God keep you and yours safe and continue to bless us all.

Marshall E. McClain, President

Assistance

Peace Officers' Assistance

Active and retired members can take part in the fun. The Los Angeles Airport Police Athletics & Activities League (LAAPAAL) is a charitable-giving organization that assists its members and other members of the community.

Short- and Long-Term Life, AD&D Needs

Available through our membership in the Peace Officers Research Association of California (PORAC), these plans are administered by Myers-Stevens & Toohy & Co. Inc., which has countless years of serving its clients.

Long-Term-Care Plan

All active members receive the optional initial benefit amount of $1,000 per month in coverage from the City Employees Club of Los Angeles.

Legislation

For over 35 years, LAAPOA has had a record of legislative involvement. It definitely helps that a current LAAPOA Board member is a member of the Board of Directors for PORAC, one of the largest statewide organizations at over 75,000 members. PORAC is a strong component of our legislative success.

Political Action

With voluntary contributions to the LAAPOA PAC coupled with great political advice from some of the best in the business, LAAPOA's PAC has been used wisely and is a direct part of the success or demise of many campaigns.

Bargaining Unit

LAAPOA is the exclusive bargaining unit for the officers of the Los Angeles Airport Police, Los Angeles Municipal Police (MPO) and Los Angeles Park Rangers (LPR). LAAPOA is the only union recognized by the City of Los Angeles to negotiate wages, hours and working conditions, and only LAAPOA members have the right to ratify a potential contract.

Standing Committees

Standing committees are composed of the Board of Directors and LAAPOA members. Committees include:

- Activities/Fundraising
- Discipline/Grievance
- Legislative/PAC
- Members/Benefits
- Negotiations/Bylaws
- PAL
- Public Information
- Scholarship
- Training/Equipment
- Retiree Liaison

Fringe Benefits

Due to LAAPOA's PORAC membership and experienced negotiators who contract directly with the City for fringe benefits, there is more to offer you and your family, such as added medical, dental, vision and, of course, your vacation and sick leave benefits.
